MEETINGS AND ENTERTAINING
AT THE FROST ART MUSEUM
Host a party in the Frost Art Museum’s soaring gallery spaces, magnificent atrium, and on our airy terrace. The Frost Art Museum offers a variety of spaces that can be transformed to accommodate either large or intimate events, with capacities ranging from 20 to 500 guests.

Taplin Family Classroom
and Dorothea & Steven Green Multipurpose Room

The Taplin Family Classroom and Dorothea & Steven Green Multipurpose Room are two spaces that are perfect for corporate trainings or private gatherings. The rooms are divided by operable, partition walls that can open to transform the area into one large space. The Dorothea & Steven Green Multipurpose Room is equipped with a projector, touchscreen control panel for audio and visual equipment, a drop-down screen for presentations, and offers sound and DVD capabilities. Automatic window shades can be adjusted for light, shade or privacy. The multipurpose rooms provide direct access to the catering kitchen and loading dock areas.

Betty Laird Perry Gallery

First Floor Galleries
The Betty Laird Perry Gallery is an add-on, open space that can be accessed from the multipurpose rooms and atrium of the museum. This space is ideal for a reception, luncheon or dinner with a window view overlooking lake and fountain.

Dahlia Morgan
Members’ Lounge

The Members’ Lounge is an ideal space for an intimate meeting or gathering. Overlooking the lake, the lounge is equipped with a digital TV and a library filled with art publications.

Kenan-Flagler Family
Museum Terrace

The Kenan-Flagler Family Terrace is a unique area for outdoor entertaining. The terrace will add garden-style and lakeside elegance to your event. The event area is spacious and equipped with power outlets, permanent outdoor lighting and furniture. The terrace is also accessible by a side entrance from the museum’s Sculpture Park, allowing for flexibility with guest arrivals and departures. There is also a garden-lined pathway leading to the catering/loading dock area for easy access with food and beverage service.

First Floor of the Museum
Rent the entire first floor of the museum for large groups complete with terrace, first floor galleries and more! The Kenan-Flagler Family Discovery Gallery located on the first floor is an interactive area for children and adults alike. Galleries and tours may be available to guests upon prior request.
