Visit some of the important parts of Peru where modernity meets ancient cultures and civilizations. Start in historic Lima— the colonial capital with a unique architectural flair, exquisite restaurants, a harmonious synthesis of historical richness, art museums and a vibrant night life. Then on to Cusco which is the gateway to the mystical Sacred Valley and Machu Picchu. Here, revel in ancient Incan history, its many conquests, disappearance and finally its discovery in the early 1900’s.

Activity level: Moderate. Good walking ability without assistance is advised. Note that Peru, Cusco, Sacred Valley and Machu Picchu are at altitudes that range from 5,000 feet to 10,000 feet above sea level. It is advisable to consult with your doctor with this brochure in hand to ensure you are physically capable of handling altitude. You will be also visiting areas that will require climbing uneven pathways and steps.

Peru’s vibrant night life and a melting pot of ethnicities make it the perfect destination for epicurean delights.  Overnight: JW Marriott

Sunday, October 14 – Lima Art Museum Tours  Note: Museum exhibits are subject to change.

Depart for a tour of the city passing by the Main Square, where the Government Palace is located. Take a quick visit to the Cathedral, where we will find the remains of the conqueror Francisco Pizarro; visit also the religious Museum of the Cathedral. The tour continues with San Francisco Church and the Monastery where the cloisters and entrance hall are embellished with authentic Sevillian tiles dating back to 1620. Also remarkable are its Museum of Religious Art, the Zurbaran room and the library. The complex was built over underground.

The high light of the tour will be a private visit to the famous Larco Herrara Museum. The Larco Museum is an eighteenth-century Viceregal mansion that houses more than 3,000 years of Peru’s pre-Columbian history. The museum boasts a supremely fine collection of gold and silver jewelry and worship paraphernalia that demonstrates the superb skill of ancient Peruvian gold and silversmiths. The Larco Museum also contains a famous collection of erotic ceramic tomb art that gives insights into various aspects of pre-Columbian sexuality. The visit will be greatly enriched by the curator of the Museum, who will provide in-depth explanations and serve as a unique conduit to the past.

Stop for lunch followed by a visit to the Museo de Arte de Lima (MALI). This is the city’s principal fine-art museum, housed in a striking beaux-arts building. Presenting over 3,000 years of Peruvian art, MALI has a large selection of pre-Columbian textiles and ceramics, and pictures and furniture from Colonial and Republican times. You will also find rooms devoted to modern and contemporary works. This latter collection begins with the 1940s, a period that ushered in the country’s first modern art, and includes pieces by Peruvian artists working in a number of styles, notably abstract, postmodern, and Pop art, and paintings by such Peruvian masters as Macedonio de la Torre, Francisco Mariotti, and Jorge Eduardo Eielson. The museum holds a number of significant pieces by Fernando de Szyszlo, considered the father of Peru’s abstract movement.
Later, an amazing highlight awaits you with a visit to Casa de Aliaga which was built in 1536 on a piece of land given by Francisco Pizarro, leader the Spanish conquest expedition of Peru, to Geronimo de Aliaga, his main lieutenant. Amazingly, de Aliaga family members still live here, making it the oldest continuously inhabited house in all the Americas.

Your visit starts with a welcome by your host Maru de Aliaga. Maru, is part of the 17th generation of the de Aliaga’s in Peru and has lived in the house since she was 7 years old. What comes next is an incredible 500-year journey back in time. Maru masterfully intertwines Peruvian history with her family's own, proud heritage and the role played by her ancestors in shaping the history of the land what is now called Peru. Dinner will be served.

Monday, October 15 – Lima | Cusco (by flight)

Breakfast at the hotel and later transfer to the airport for your flight to Cusco.

On arrival, you will transfer to the Sacred Valley- the “eternal home of Machu Picchu”. On the way make a visit to the Koricancha and the Convent of Santo Domingo. The Convent was built on the amazing Koricancha (or “site of gold”), the most important temple dedicated to the worship of the Sun and whose walls were once covered with sheets of gold.

After a brief stop for lunch, the group will visit Pisac. This archaeological complex built between the tenth and eleventh centuries. Inca architecture continues to stun admirers with the technique used to build its enormous walls, palaces and turrets with stone blocks, all done without any type of cement or adhesive.

Arrive at your hotel and check in followed by dinner at Hacienda Huayocarri– a typical Andean colonial hacienda, owned and inhabited by the Orihuela– Lambarri family for over three centuries. After a tour of the centuries-old property, and a detailed explanation of the family's impressive pre-Columbian art collection, guests will be treated to a typical Andean dinner.

Overnight: Aranwa Sacred Valley (B, L, D)
Tuesday, October 16 – Sacred Valley

Breakfast at the hotel and depart for a full day tour of Ollantaytambo and Chinchero.

Ollantaytambo is the famous pre-historic fort that majestically dominates the valley. Its high ramparts and massive terracing once served as a stronghold of the Manco Inca Yupanqui- the leader of the Inca resistance against the Spanish conquistadores. You can still see the series of temples and a complete irrigation system that the Incans designed.

Chinchero is a small Andean Indian village located high up on the windswept plains of Anta at 3,765 feet and is believed to be the mythical birthplace of the rainbow. The village mainly comprises mud brick (adobe) houses, and locals still go about their business in traditional dress. The village may have been an important town in Inca times. The most striking remnant of this period is the massive stone wall in the main plaza which has ten trapezoidal niches. The construction of the wall and many other ruins and agricultural terraces (which are still in use) are attributed to Inca Tupac Yupanqui who possibly used Chinchero as a kind of country resort.

In the main plaza, an adobe colonial church, dating from the early seventeenth century, has been built upon the foundations of an Inca temple or palace. The ceiling and walls are covered in beautiful floral and religious designs.

During this day trip, we will have a unique opportunity to visit Nilda Canallaupa- an indigenous Quecha weaver who started the Centro de Textiles Tradicionales del Cusco. Here you will see a demonstration of some of the unique work done by indigenous Peruvians.

Return to the hotel in time for dinner. Overnight: Aranwa Sacred Valley (B, L, D)

Wednesday, October 17 – Sacred Valley | Machu Picchu

Breakfast at the hotel and depart for Machu Picchu by train. The train offers a unique connection with the scenery along the way to Machu Picchu, making passengers feel as if they were somehow part of the nature that surrounds them.
Lunch on arrival followed by a visit to the ruins. Machu Picchu was re-discovered in 1911 by the explorer Hiram Bingham and is considered to be one of the most extraordinary examples of landscape architecture in the world. Located in an enclave on the saddle of a mountain overlooking the deep canyon of the Urubamba River, in an area of lush tropical forest, it served as a place of worship, a site for star-gazing and a private hacienda of the family of the Inca Pachacutec. It consists of two main areas: one agricultural, formed mainly by mountains and food stores, and the other urban, which is noted for its sacred zone with its temples, squares and royal tombs. The stairways and canals carved out of stone are recurrent throughout this remarkable archaeological site.

Overnight: Sumaq Machu Picchu (B, L, D)

Thursday, October 18 – Machu Picchu | Cusco

Early breakfast and another visit to the Machu Picchu ruins. Later, take the train to Cusco. Cusco was once the historic capital of the Inca empire, now a UNESCO World Heritage site. Its elevation of over 11,000 feet allows visitors to acclimatize before setting off on long treks towards Machu Picchu’s legendary mountain ruins. Cusco is a very pleasant city to explore, with wonderful ancient stonework, narrow streets and important Inca temple remains, complemented by Spanish colonial buildings. Numerous museums showcase Inca and pre-Colombian culture, as well as textiles and sacred plants. Being a rich agricultural region, many fusion and neo-Andean restaurants offer unique Peruvian gastronomy experiences.

Check into your accommodation and the rest of the evening at your own leisure. Dinner on your own at one of the many places that dot the main square.

Overnight: JW Marriot Cusco (B, L)

Friday, October 19 – Cusco

After breakfast, embark on an art walk. Stroll along the cobblestone streets while marveling at the flawless Incan stonework, picturing a time and place when the Incas had a massive empire. Guests will learn about the Cusco School of Art, an expression born by the blend of European and Andean. Off the colonial main square visit the cathedral, which contains one of the city’s greatest examples of Mestizo art. At the Inca Historical Museum you can view paintings that helps us understand Mestizo identity. The final stop is the archbishop’s private art collection.
Depart after lunch to Andahuaylillas. The most important attraction of the quiet Andean town of Andahuaylillas is its church, San Pedro de Andahuaylillas, considered to be the “Sistine Chapel” of America. In spite of its modest architecture, the inside decoration is impressive, as it contains an outstanding collection of the Cusco Academy. Inside the church there are some remains of Inca buildings, and the baptistery area has writings in five languages: Latin, Spanish, Quechua, Pukina and Aymara.

Later, stop into Huaro Church. Most of the interior art of this colonial chapel was done by Tadeo Ecalante, considered to be the last of the great Cusco artists and the best example of the “Andean-West” fusion. Here we can find “Hell”, considered to be his masterpiece, a mural that expresses much of Andean religious syncretism that emerged as the Spanish conquerors tried to subdue the Andean population using religion as one of the main and most powerful tools.

Dinner on your own.

Saturday, October 20 – Cusco | Lima | U.S.A.

Breakfast at the hotel and transfer to the Cusco airport for your flight to Lima. On arrival, you will be transferred to your hotels where day-rooms have been arranged followed by lunch.

Later in the day, guests will return to the Lima airport to connect to their international flight* back to the U.S.
